

Abdulrahman Munir

Full Stack Developer

Profile

Full stack developer who ships products end-to-end—React/Node.js front to Python API and database—with an AI/ML edge from building speech-to-text and low-resource NLP systems (native Hausa speaker). Comfortable across the whole stack, quick to pick up new tools, pattern-oriented, and strong with written communication. Looking to grow with a small engineering team. Open to internships and junior roles.
